"Celebrating Survivors and Caregivers"

Peggy Fleming, Olympic figure skating gold medalist and breast cancer survivor, will be the featured speaker at this year's American Cancer Society "Mothers - Daughters - Sisters - Friends" luncheon.

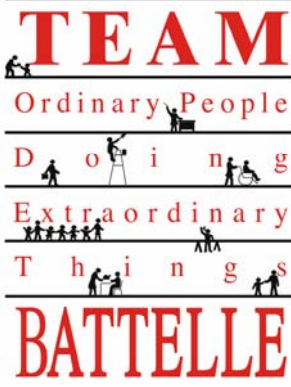

Fleming, who was diagnosed with breast cancer in January 1998, will address the gathering regarding her Olympic experience, her diagnosis, and how breast cancer has impacted her life.

The event will be an opportunity for all women to learn about the local programs and services offered by the American Cancer Society.

In 2006, an estimated 213,000 new cases of breast cancer will be diagnosed in women nationwide, with approximately 4,000 new cases in Washington and 2,800 in Oregon.

Tickets can be purchased at the American Cancer Society office
7325 W Deschutes Ave Ste A, Kennewick or by calling 509-783-1574

Tickets are $75 each
